—C. B. Chao has returned from Atchison county.

—County court will meet Monday, March 3rd.

—Go to E. P. Hostetter's for fine oranges—only 25 cents per dozen.

—Mr. Levi Zook was visiting with old friends in St. Joseph, this week.

—J. J. Graham, of St. Joseph, was visiting in New Point, this week.

—Mrs. Jennie Stevens, of Colorado, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Comer.

—Andy Seyfert, of Nebraska, is visiting "old folks at home," near this city.

—Granger, of Nodaway county, wants a band, furniture store and livery stable.

—Mrs. Ryan, of White Cloud, Kansas, is the guest of Mrs. Emma Dobyns, this week.

—Fresh Oysters, Pure Buckwheat, Onions, Limburger Cheese, Potatoes, Queensware and Glassware at Moore's the Grocer.

—Elder Sibelil will preach at the Christian church next Sunday, morning and evening.

—Orla Davis, who has been rusticated in Kansas for several months, is at home on a visit.

—Tom Hindle has been laid up this week, by a lame back, caused by attempting to beat his son Will jumping.

—Martin Whitmer, of the Gordon district, is going into raising Pulled-Angus cattle. He has quite a fine herd already.

—Rev. H. Fiegenbaum, of St. Joseph, was visiting in Oregon, this week, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Minnie Curry.

—The House bill prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to minors under 17 years of age, was defeated in the Senate last Wednesday.

—When in need of drugs, fancy and toilet articles, or anything carried in a first class drug store, go and see D. S. Alkire, Forest City.

—James Scott and wife have returned from a pleasant visit with B. F. Plummer and wife, of Clarinda, Iowa. Ben is a nephew of Mr. Scott.

—T. L. Price is receiving agricultural implements by the car load. Watch out for his "ad" next week. He is going to make things hum, this spring.

—The Atchison County Farmers' and Laborers' Union are talking of building a $10,000 flouring mill. We believe the enterprise would prove of great benefit to the people of that section.

—Miss Brownlow is going away in a few days, and will hold a closing out sale of household and kitchen furniture at her home in this city, next Saturday, February 28th, at 1 p. m.

—The famous Patent Raw-Hide Tip Shoes for children at Fitts' One Price Cash Store. Go and see them before you buy. Their stock of shoes is the largest, by far, to be found in the county.

—E. A. Welty was circulating among the Soldiers in Jefferson City, last week. Ed intended to go on to St. Louis to attend the funeral of General Sherman, but was taken sick at Jefferson, compelling him to return.

—Married, by Rev. Keiser at the bride's home, in Forest City, on Thursday, 28th inst., Godfrey Burger and Miss Ida Arnack. The SENTINEL's congratulations are extended these young people and wishes them a long life of unalloyed happiness.

—Rev. Clark Davis, formerly pastor of the M. E. church, Forest City, is now pastor of one of the largest churches in Seattle, Washington, and is rapidly striving to the front as one of the ablest divines of the Pacific Slope. He has also assumed a small fortune of this world's goods, being rated at about $50,000.

—Frank E. Stephens, of New York City, was in Forest City Tuesday, on his way home. He had been to Corning, and identified the young man who died recently in that city, as his brother. The coroner's inquest on the body of the young man, who was killed by a train, was held at the funeral home of the city, and the funeral service was conducted by the Lutheran minister of that place.

—Notice to Farmers: If you are out of water or need a pump, don't fail to call and see or drop a card to Burdick & Moran, the well drillers, who are now drilling a well for the city, and are ready to drill for you on short notice. They also drill for rock and other formations with a five or six inch hole. They are also agents for the Eclipse Wind Mills and Fairbanks Pumps.

—Mrs. Letitia Perkins, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Maggie, left last Monday for Craig, where they attended the funeral of Miss Etta Redmon and George Redmon, a happy and prosperous journey through life.

—George M. Christian, of Grinnell, Iowa, assistant superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, broke up a bogus detective agency at Washington, Iowa, last week. Three men who were running the concern were arrested and placed under bonds for their appearance before the United States Court at Des Moines. They were taking in through the mails $500 per day through their fraudulent schemes. Mr. Christian is a brother of Mrs. William Kaucher, of this city.

—We are authorized to announce Prof. W. S. Dearmont, the present principal of the Mound City public schools, for the office of County School Commissioner. This we do with very great pleasure, knowing the professor as we do, we gladly present him to the voters of Holt for their consideration at the coming election. Mr. Dearmont is favorably known by all having had large experience as a teacher. He is a graduate of the State University and we believe possesses many qualifications to enable him to perform the duties of the office with great credit. Should our people elect him, they will find that the professor will make an efficient county school superintendent.

—The social event of the week was a partying reception, on Monday evening, given by the "Woman's Union," in honor of Mrs. Lulah Kieff, who leaves in a few days for the land of the "setting sun." Mrs. Kaucher, Mrs. Emma Herschberger, Mrs. Thatcher and Mrs. Lehnman took part in the program. Mrs. Kieff, the guest of the evening, contributed delightful music. In addition to the literary and musical exercises, elegant refreshments were served at 9:30. Mrs. K. Q. Thatcher's hospitable style. These present were: Mesdames Curry, Kaucher, Fitts, Herschberger, Cochran, Shultz, Dolans, Kieff, Storrett, Irvine, Thatcher, and Misses Bond, Linder, Langhain, Curry, Herschberger, Kaucher and Storrett.

—Married, by Rev. T. D. Roberts at his residence in this city, Sunday, February 24th, 1891, Mr. Charlie Foster and Miss Mary A. Levens. Charlie is a son and Mr. Samuel Foster a prominent and wealthy farmer, residing just east of town, and one of the oldest settlers of this county. The bride is a handsome and intelligent young lady, the daughter of Mr. A. J. Lyons, also living near here. Charlie's marriage was quite a surprise to his many friends when he announced it, not one of them believing it, for immediately after the ceremony they mutually agreed not to tell anyone, Charlie returning to his home and she to hers, thus living apart for a week before they told their friends. The SENTINEL extends the warmest congratulations.

—Miss Mary A. Levens, accompanied by her adopted son, Howard, will leave next week for Spokane Falls, Washington, where they will make their future home. Miss Levens is the daughter of a prominent member of the W. C. T. U. of this city, having been secretary of that society for several years. While we are sorry to see them leave we trust that they will realize their fondly anticipated goal and prosper far beyond their most sanguine expectations. She will have a closing out sale of her household and kitchen furniture, next Saturday afternoon, February 28th, at one o'clock.

—We seldom have as continued blizzards in this county as there has been ever since the first of January. They are almost impassable. It would be well for road owners to turn the water courses from the track into the proper channels—this would save immense work in the future if attended to at once. As we seldom had such a blizzard with the hope that road law should be changed so as to provide for keeping the roads in repair by contractors under bond.
